Introducing The Tlaga Singha River Country Club

Ubud's Newest Icon: A World-Class Luxury Lifestyle & Dining Destination

Bali, Indonesia, March 2019 – The eyes of the world is set to shine on Ubud, Bali as the island's cultural epicenter welcome its latest icon with the unveiling of the Tlaga Singha River Country Club this May.

A world-class lifestyle and dining destination set in the lush forests of Singapadu, Tlaga Singha promises even the most discerning visitor a unique, one-of-a-kind experience like never before. The venue sprawls on acres of untouched virgin land and visitors to Tlaga Singha will be treated to an authentically natural Balinese experience amidst unparalleled luxury with mesmerizing views of the surrounding jungles and the river valley below.

Located just minutes away from the Bali Zoo, Tlaga Singha is a green escape, a place to relax and unwind within an impressive and luxurious environment, excellent services and first-class facilities. Designed to blend into its natural surroundings, it is home to a remarkable split-level swimming pool that mimics the flow of a serene lagoon cascading into a natural waterfall to the second level below, where a swim-up pool bar hidden under a rocky grotto provides refreshing ice-cold drinks and other exotic island sustenance.

On the ground floor, there's a trendy and chic bar as well as a spacious semi-open air restaurant overlooking the banks of the river offering halal Indonesian cuisine. The menu at Tlaga Singha is a curated presentation of the most authentic selections from across the archipelago. The Head Chef, who comes with decades of experience both in Indonesia and worldwide, promises an unforgettable culinary journey with every bite. The restaurant offers delightful, delectable and enticing selections for breakfast, lunch, tea and dinner. Private Cooking Classes are also available for those who wish to participate.

Those looking for a top-to-toe mind, body and soul rejuvenation can book a session at The Spa and find relief in the healing touch of experienced therapists learned in Indonesia's age-old wellness and beauty traditions that have conquered the test of time. Choose your treatment from a decadent spa menu that embraces the wonders of Indonesia's rich beauty heritage including the beloved Balinese Massage, Traditional Lulur, Facials, Hair Treatments, Manicure & Pedicures and so much more.

MICE facilities are also available for those looking to combine work and pleasure including state-of-the-art meeting rooms complete with conference facilities, fast WIFI, projectors and a sound system. Love birds wishing to begin their happily ever after in a uniquely memorable location should look no further than Tlaga Singha – the venue can host up to 500 persons with a variety of wedding packages including F&B, decorations and a dedicated events manager.

Tlaga Singha River Country Club was designed to honour its surroundings, location and the village of Singapadu and its rich and proud history and tradition. The name Tlaga or "Telaga" means small lake or garden, and Singha means lion or king as well as a direct reference to its location in the village of Singapadu.

Tlaga Singha River Country Club is managed by (Management Company Name Here) and is set to open its doors to the public by May 2020. To find out more about Tlaga Singha River Country Club and for further inquiries, please contact (Management Office) at (Phone Number) or (Email Address).
