

Tips for Traveling Solo with your Dogs

6 Secrets you Must Know Before Starting the Journey with your Dog

If you have ever traveled with your dog, you know how stressful it can be. If you are planning for a solo trip with them across the country, there are several things that you can do to make the journey comfortable for you both. Here is the list of little prep work with some extra planning that helps your furry friends along with you on most travel adventures.

Plan Beforehand

Imagine the worst scenario & be prepared with all the essentials in your vehicle. Plan your route, and pee stops, keep handy your pet's health records, & prior book the hotels for both of your convenience.

Cleanliness & Hygiene Comes First

Always clean your pets before getting them in the car. Give a quick wash to their feet & pat dry with a towel before starting the trip.

Protect your Car Too

Invest in a good dog seat cover to protect your seat additionally prevent them from falling.

Pack the Essential (A Little Extra!)

Carry your pet collar & leash, a safety harness for their on-road safety.

Pack some of their favorite toys to keep them engaged on the road.

Remember to carry a pet carrier.

Carry all of their medicines.

Keep some dog treats handy.

Carry a lint roller because they shed a lot.

Carry a dog travel bag with foldable bowls.

Pack enough food & water for them.

Take an umbrella & water-resistant jacket for you both.

Take extra towels & blanket.

Teach Them Manners

Try to teach them the basic commands like sit, stay, or a hi-five. Working on obedience & manner will make it easy to manage a dog during any trip.

Get your Dog's Check-up Done

Call your veterinarian & ask for expert advice before the trip. Depending on your destination, you may need to vaccinate your pets before leaving the home.
