

BAPTISM DOTH ALSO NOW SAVE US

 1 PETER 3:21-22 - "[the evil spirits; fallen angels] Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, EIGHT SOULS WERE SAVED BY [or thru] WATER, the like figure [an antitype: an image resembling] whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but THE ANSWER OF A GOOD CONSCIENCE TOWARD GOD,) by the RESURRECTION OF JESUS CHRIST:"

Baptism into Christ's death; baptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus was never authorized for any soul, unless they have heard the Good News of the Kingdom of God AND the name of Jesus Christ, the literal divine Son of God/the Son of man, believed that form of doctrine from the heart, and received the knowledge of salvation thru repentance and the remission of sins. Yet, if when one was immersed into water, never having heard the Good News of the Kingdom AND the name of the Son of God; the Truth (His True identity, what He has done for humanity: bringing the kingdom of God to us, and His invitation to enter into the new divine human race, thru Him, the Door) that sets us free from sin and death — that was not His baptism of death. Just to be doused in water or perhaps sprinkled w a lil water, believing another idea and manmade doctrine, will surely not save. If what Jesus finished could be tweaked a lil here or bent a bit there, then salvation would be in another way, by another name/identity (i.e. titles).

To believe the Truth about Jesus' true identity—His Sonship—is scripturally paramount to salvation. He is the sent Messiah who was crucified, buried and on the third day risen again, for us. To understand this, and be granted repentance by God (to die), and soon thereafter be water baptized confessing His name (buried w Him in His death), we embark upon a rare journey of entering thru the strait gate to walk the narrow path, by the faith of Jesus. He is the only way, the only truth, and the only life we rest abide in.

In, Acts 19, br Paul not only cut to the chase w those disciples but he also demonstrated a protocol of how to enter into the righteousness of Christ, even tho one may not have understood initially where the Front Door of the Kingdom was. Paul's love for Christ and His flock allowed him to perceive the missing link as to why those twelve disciples on the upper coast of Ephesus were not aware of the identity of the Spirit. Note, Paul did not immediately lay his hands upon them. BUT FIRST he simply taught them, that br John the baptist was indeed sent in the way of righteousness, commanding all that heard him to repent, believe on the Messiah to come and, be baptized receiving remission of their sins. With an enlarged heart, br Paul lovingly corrected those disciples misunderstanding of salvation, in the Spirit of Christ, while consenting to wholesome words and sound speech. Paul was pretty strait forward, edifying the ears of ALL that heard him (even including mine, while I meditated and studied this passage back in the summer of 2018).

 Acts 19:1-6 - "And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples, he said unto them, have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost. And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, unto John's baptism. Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus. When they heard THIS, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied."

Br Paul earnestly cared and inquired of them, "If you've never heard if there be any Holy Spirit, then, into what then were you baptized?" Indicating that baptism is not just something we think to do on a whim, or something we do carelessly, ticking it off of a 'Things To Do' list. We must understand Who's saving us! It's also not only a 'symbol', either. The calling upon the Name of the Lord Jesus indicates that one now knows to Whom they belong to, to Whom they will now gladly serve and follow, and Whom will come to dwell in them and give them Life. Baptism is not an after thought or a 'whenever I feel led to be baptized' type of thing. It's not carnal or of human devising, it's God's counsel and way of holiness. There is a strong unction and desire to publicly confess our Lord Jesus before any and all—all the time. Just like it's done in covenant marriage. A soul is making their confession/marital vow to Abba Father officially (and usually at the moment belief comes, so there's no tarrying or lallygagging recorded anywhere in the NT). One believes w ALL their heart, this foundational Truth of the Kingdom, and expectantly awaits like a child to receive the seal of God; the gift of Christ living w in them. He promised to come and manifests Himself to all who believe His name.

 Romans 6:17 - "But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have OBEYED from the heart THAT FORM OF DOCTRINE which was delivered you."

 John 14:20, 23 - "At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. ...If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him."

Now this brings me to the heart of this post: Matthew 28:19 was never to be parroted verbatim as an incantation to glorify and honor a "triune baptismal formula". Declaring and confessing three titles over a soul only pays homage to a popular, prolific, tradition of men; to christendom's fav ideology.

Give 11mins or so to keenly watch the video below, as a lil child, pls — not like a scholar. Do you have "an affinity for a trinity"? Are you still abiding in its unscriptural babylonian rooted ideology, unawares? Or are you willfully disregarding that form of doctrine which was delivered to you by the apostles, shrugging your shoulders bc 'everybody else does it that way'? Pray and bring this before Abba Father to reason w Him. The Lord Jesus, by His Spirit, will then teach you in the way that you should go. He did it for me. He will to do it for anyone who reverentially seeks what is righteous and pleasing to His Father, w a sincere heart.

A beloved brother below, presents w clarity, correction and faithful assurance of the Truth what Jesus Christ (Yahusha ha'Mashiach) taught His disciples regarding the only way made, to come to His Father: by or thru Christ alone, the Son of God. That [strait] Door; the [high] Way of holiness; the [sanctified] Truth; the [gift of eternal] Life; the only [life-giving/quickenning Spirit] Breath: the Lord our Righteousness [← click here].

One must honor the Son w all their heart, even the same way they honor the Father. The Messiah commanded this of all men believers + unbelievers alike, yes, in [John 5:23-27]. If one honors and believes on the Son, as the scripture has said, then the great commission will not be a stumbling stone for them but a highway. The Messiah stated that all power [authority] in heaven AND in earth is given to Him, so therefore GO and teach the nations about the divine literal Son of God/the Son of man, and anyone that has an ear to hear (listens) and begins to believe from the heart w understanding the Truth, are ushered in by the counsel of God to be baptized in His Son's Name baptized or born of all power; in all the authority that is GIVEN TO the Messiah, the divine Son of God, ref. [John 5:26-27, John 17:1-2, John 10:28].
