

Peck School of the Arts

October 10 at 2:00pm · 🌐

Music Education senior, Anna VanNuland, has won the WMEA Richard G. Gaarder Award for showing exceptional leadership, musical excellence and service to both campus and community!

The award also recognizes Peck School of the Arts' Department of Music for helping to foster the growth of our future 🎓 education leaders.

In addition to her music studies, Anna earned UWM's Autism Spectrum certificate and is currently working as a line therapist through the Wisconsin Early Autism Project. 🧡

Peck School. #ArtsEngaged.

👍 Like 💬 Comment ➦ Share

👤 You, Tanya Kruse Ruck, Maggie Iken and 49 others

Top Comments

1 Share

👤 Write a comment... 😊 🗨️

👤 David Morstad As a 1976 Music Therapy grad, I am thrilled that the important music/autism intersection is still nurtured at my beloved UWM! Congratulations, Anna.

Like · Reply · 1 · October 10 at 7:25pm

👤 Perry Brumm One of my song birds, so very pleased with you!

Like · Reply · October 10 at 3:17pm

👤 Anna Kristine ❤️ ❤️ ❤️

Like · Reply · 1 · October 10 at 3:34pm

➡ 1 Reply