

DISCOVERIES

Browse the insider's guide to the latest wedding-related products and services.

SUMMER CHIC

Summer weddings often mean bachelorette parties and honeymoons in sunny weather, and you want to make sure you are properly accessorized. Gone are the puka shells from your middle school days – thanks to Rae Feather, there is a new way to embrace seashells in your beach attire. Stylish bangles and necklaces showcase gold cowrie shells, or choose from woven totes featuring fringe, tassels, and real shell details to serve as the perfect way to bring your sunscreen and towel to the shore. Some designs offer hand-painted initials while others use shells to spell out letters, but either way it's a playful way to embrace your new monogram. Starting at $124; raefeather.com

PHOTO COURTESY OF THE OCEAN CLUB,
A FOUR SEASONS RESORT, BAHAMAS

RING OF LOVE

In a way, choosing where to register is like designing your married life. Your wish list will contain the pieces to build your home together. Therefore, it's not unreasonable to use the same store as the catalyst of this relationship milestone. Gearys Beverly Hills not only has luxury kitchenware and home décor, but also vintage-inspired, nontraditional engagement rings for brides-to-be who prefer statement pieces to classic simplicity. Prices upon request; gearys.com

Fresh Florals

Scent is closely tied to memory, which creates an often-forgotten opportunity for your wedding day. By choosing a new fragrance for the occasion, whenever you spritz that perfume again, your mind will rush back to the happy time. Consider Badgley Mischka Eau de Parfum, which has a beautifully bold dewy floral scent. Notes of magnolia trees make it the perfect choice for a Southern bride, but the warm notes of musk and amber will have everyone reaching for the chic amethyst bottle. Starting at $28; badgleymischka.com

SLIP INTO LUXURY

Floral-print robes or monogrammed pajamas are cute for the bridal suite while getting ready for the big day, but to complete the ensemble you'll want to include Birdies. The brand has released their first-ever bridal collection, and these blush and champagne-hued slippers with velvet, fringe, and crystal design elements are far more elegant than lounging around in flip-flops or bare feet. They make a great gift for your attendants as well – though they are part of a bridal collection, they aren't so obviously wedding-themed as to fall out of use after your nuptials. Starting at $95; birdiesslippers.com

DISCOVERIES

Branded Baggage

If you choose to change your name after getting married, you're likely eager to embrace your new monogram. What better occasion than your honeymoon? The new luggage collection from Mark & Graham's Monogram Wedding Shop includes stylish suitcases in a variety of hues accented with leather detailing. You'll never mistake someone's bag for yours at baggage claim again, and it's light enough that you'll be able to easily carry it through the airport – even if there weren't wheels with 360-degree capabilities. The fashion-forward and functional pieces make for a thoughtful wedding gift or the perfect way to treat yourself before the big day.

Starting at $199; markandgraham.com

Roll With It

CBD oil has been all the rage lately, thanks to its restorative properties. Celebrities such as Kristen Bell and Busy Philipps swear by the ability of CBD oil to calm everything from anxiety to aching feet. For a bride-to-be getting ready for her big day, that can make a huge difference. To help your skin be at its best for your wedding, honeymoon, and beyond, Lord Jones High CBD Body Oil is enriched with organic avocado, safflower seed, and jojoba oils. The rollerball applicator allows for easy spot treatments and can help to reduce and prevent inflammation caused by razor burn, eczema, sun exposure, and more. $65; lordjones.com

Haute Handbags

As with women's everyday fashion, bridal gowns tend to be lacking in pockets. Even dresses that do offer the feature aren't always the most practical, but on your wedding day you will certainly have some essentials that you need to keep track of, and your standard purse just won't do. Cloe Noel has a new line of stylish clutches embellished with beaded laces and hand-selected vintage jewels, which come together to create unique designs. You may not be able to wear your dress again, but you are bound to come up with reasons to keep using your bridal clutch. $95-$225; cloenoeldesigns.com