70s - Above all other looks for 2015, the 70s fashion trend was the most ubiquitous. At one point we wondered if the 70s were really this hot in the 70s. Fashion's love affair with this era raged throughout the year, be it be winter or spring. Shimmying and shivering from every possible point, the 70s were inspiration and they showed no signs of fading. Whether your style was Wild West or chic with a bohemian twist, fringed accessories were adorned by street-style mavens and celebrities everywhere. Suede, velvets and corduroy were big. We saw flares, boho maxis (see Anna Sui), shearling coats and peasant blouses (Emilio Pucci).

As we gear up for a new year and a new season, we look back on 2015's most influential trends. Whilst the year has had a lot of glorious and not to glorious moments; there are some trends that stayed on top all year. From the runway looks through to street style; these are the trends that made 2015 special.
