The Sublime and the Surreal: Erik Satie & Salvador Dalí

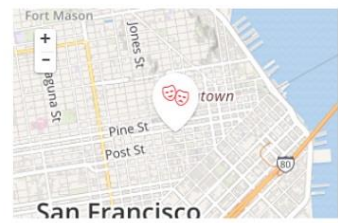

Thu 11/30 @ 7:00 PM

Satie: Musical Bad Boy & Dalí: Surreal, For Real

25 - 225 POINTS
Upcoming

Can you imagine being in Paris around the beginning of the 20th century? Kayleen Asbo of the San Francisco Conservatory of Music can. And her lecture, The Sublime and the Surreal: Erik Satie and Salvador Dalí, will take you there, through music and art. Erik Satie was a composer who created music that defies categorization to this day. Dalí was an artist who painted watches that dripped and flying tigers being eaten by fish. Now THIS is the kind of stuff we don't mind being lectured about.
