

Kass Fletcher

A fast learner and passionate creative with strong social skills and a drive to broaden my horizons. I am a skilled problem solver, team player and communicator keen to learn on the job.

Education

Lancaster University (Currently Studying)

BA Hons Film and Creative Writing

Ullswater Community College (Sixth Form)

A-level English Language (A)

A-level Sociology (B)

A-level Media Studies (A)

Ullswater Community College

10 GCSEs including Maths, English (Lang + Lit) and Separate Sciences

Skills

Teamwork

- Writer/Developer at Spellcast; helping to co-ordinate writing, modelling and art to produce content.
- Author at Adellos; working closely with the company head and game design team to fulfil a joint creative vision.
- Group work as part of A-level studies, Bachelor's Degree studies, fulfilling contract work at Zallabak.

Communication

- Writer at Zallabak; maintaining a back and forth between myself and my American boss.
- Due to remote work, I have had to adapt my communication to include extensive digital communication alongside my verbal skills.

IT

- The digital nature of the majority of my previous employment has led to skills in many pieces of software including the Google software suite and several project management programs (Trello, Hack 'N' Plan, Google Sheets, Etc).

Organisational / Managerial Skills

- Studio Owner / Lead Writer at PixEris; As a founding member of the studio, I have had a hand in everything from budgeting, recruitment, personnel management and the day-to-day project management of a videogame production. This includes organising our weekly meetings, reminding members about deadlines / upcoming goals and so on.

Employment

"Project TSC" Writer - Zallabak LLC (2020-2022)

Lore/Story Writer - Spellcast Studios (2020-2023)

Author - Adellos GMBH (2020-2022)

Studio Owner / Lead Writer - PixEris Studio (2022-Present)

Team Member - Westmorland Services (2022-2023)

Volunteering

- Penrith Library Summer Reading Challenge
- Shap CofE Primary School