Instagram Trending Jewels: How you find its popularity a surprise:

You might get surprised by its popularity, but it's not a wonder at all as these jewelry pieces range from the most modest to the most expensive you can ever buy. As gold and silver are ornaments in their own league, epoxy and UV resin jewelry found a huge fan following.

Thanks to Instagram reels and tik-tokers who even show 1-minute videos to create resin pendants and jewelry from mostly cost-effective materials and colors with readily available elements like wood, dried flowers, plastics, and shiny minerals.

Apart from its simplicity, they are also waterproof and eco-friendly, which makes them more desirable to the new generation of girls.
