

Haunted Hayride Kicks Off At Griffith Park

By Macee Binns - Sep 29, 2017

LOS FELIZ—The annual Haunted Hayride is making its return to Griffith Park on Friday, September 29, and the “Clown” themed event is sure to scare guests as they explore the four featured scare zones: Purgatory, House Of Shadows, Trick-Or-Treat, and the Haunted Hayride.

The month-long fright-fest is presented by Ten Thirty One Productions. A spokesperson for the company stated, “Guests are guaranteed to come face-to-face with their biggest, darkest fears for the scariest Halloween immersion experience on the West Coast.” This 30-acre attraction takes patrons on a creepy tour through Griffith Park’s Old Zoo with murderous clowns lurking in the woods. Melissa Carbone, Ten Thirty One Productions CEO and founder of the Haunted Hayride stated in a press release, “Clown – will literally have you on the edge of your seat and then forced out of those seats as you escape on foot to experience the winding, weaving Corn Maze smack dab in the middle of the ride!”

The Los Angeles Haunted Hayride runs from September 29 through October 31 at the Griffith Park Old Zoo. Operating hours are Sundays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 7:00 p.m.-10:30 p.m. and Fridays and Saturdays from 7:00 p.m. to midnight. General admission is $44 and VIP passes can be purchased for $62. This attraction is not recommended for children under the age of 10.

Macee Binns

Macee Binns is a writer and published playwright that currently lives in Los Angeles. In addition to interning for Canyon News, she is also a Staff Content Writer for the popular news media site TheRichest.com. Macee writes for numerous blogs including her women’s comedy blog “The Thoughts From A Tiny Ass Chair Blog,” which you can check out at www.tinyasschair.com. You can follow Macee on Instagram at @maceebinns.