

View this email in your browser

BethesdaToday
Montgomery County's Trusted News Source

Dear reader,

Hi, I'm Amy Orndorff, managing editor at Bethesda Today and a proud fourth-generation Montgomery County resident. As a mom, daughter, granddaughter and niece of Montgomery County residents, I know how vital it is for our neighbors to have access to trustworthy, independent local news.

At Bethesda Today, we don't just report on Montgomery County. We're deeply connected to the community. Our roots here give us the insight and trust needed to ask the right questions, tell stories with true context and hold local leaders accountable.

But none of this is possible without your support. Your contributions help keep our reporting free and accessible to everyone—no paywalls, no subscriptions—just honest journalism that matters.

Will you help us keep local news accessible and thriving?

You can count on my support!

Every gift, big or small, fuels the in-depth, community-rooted reporting you can't find anywhere else. Recurring donations are especially valuable as they help us plan for the future and continue serving our community.

Thank you for standing with us. Together, we can keep Montgomery County informed, empowered and connected.

With gratitude,

Amy Orndorff

Managing Editor, Bethesda Today

Bethesda Today's existence relies on campaigns like this one. We appreciate your patience with extra emails during these times. By making a contribution, you can skip the bulk of these messages through the end of the year. Alternatively, you can opt out of this campaign by updating your preferences here. Thanks for being in Bethesda Today's community.

Copyright © 2025 Bethesda Magazine | Bethesda Today, All rights reserved.

Getting too many emails from us? You can update your preferences.
Never want to hear from Bethesda Magazine | Bethesda Today again? Unsubscribe.