Two-level Brick House on a Christmas Tree Farm

An hour northeast of Dallas is a pet-friendly, two-story brick home perfect for a quiet getaway. It has 4 Bedrooms, 2 and 1/2 bathrooms, and can easily fit up to 10 people comfortably.

Sitting on ten acres of land surrounded by Christmas trees is the Farm House, a trampoline, a storage shed, and a mile-long running path. There is a wooden outdoor patio set with a grill to have a cookout— a perfect way to enjoy the breeze through the trees without the noise of the city.

The living room is the heart of the house. It has a fireplace and a projector screen for family-time movie nights. The spacious kitchen is ready to cook a feast using the high-quality stovetop, oven, and air fryer. Wifi is provided and each room includes Roku TVs streaming Netflix, Disney+, and Hulu.

From a gravel driveway to concrete parking spots, you can park either in front of the house or in the garage— welcome to come and go as you please.

Charming Cabin at Easy Manor

This is more than a place to rest your head, it's an extraordinary indoor and outdoor experience. This unique 'hobbit home' was built by your very own friendly, neighboring host.

This cozy cabin comes with everything you might need for a couple or a solo getaway. The kitchenette is equipped with a microwave, mini-fridge/freezer, hotplate, coffee machine, and a toaster. The studio comes with a bathroom with a toilet and shower, a loft space for a double-person bed, a pullout couch in the 'living room space, and quirky touches that are a must-see to understand. And the nights are peacefully lit with soft lights strung through the trees all the way to the cabin that glows.

Among the 10 acres of land to explore, there is a pond that has a rope swing for summertime swimming and the 'cabana' area has a grill, floaty toys, and lounge chairs. There's a brick outdoor fireplace to enjoy s'mores and quality time. Next to the pond is a lodge available for just about anything (music, painting, game night, etc). Deeper in the trees there are creeks and a waterfall plus a lookout tower to see a birds-eye view.

Welcome to come and go as you please. There is a specific "cabin road" that leads straight to your parking spots. Here, you can enjoy exploring on your own through acres of land and activities.

Jacuzzi Studio—Private Room in Historical Nature Lodge

Celebrating 111 years this year is the Green Mountain Falls Lodge. It used to be the stage stop 100 years ago but now it welcomes guests. Keep in mind, due to the historical nature of the lodge, the rooms are smaller but they have a character that a built-chain hotel may not have. If you like to take the path less taken for unique experiences, you will enjoy staying here.

This is a king-bed studio that's perfect for a couples retreat. It has a kitchenette that includes a mini fridge, a microwave coffee maker, pots, pans, dishes, and more. Prepare to be pampered in the 2-person jacuzzi perfect after a long day of adventure.

Upon request, subject to availability, pack 'n plays are at your disposal but must send in a request at the time of booking.

If you plan your getaway at the historic Green Mountain Falls Lodge, you'll truly enjoy a unique and memorable experience nesting between the Colorado mountains— it's the adventure you've been waiting for.
