

Why Become a Member?

Legislative Advocacy

MSNVA members lobby both the Virginia General Assembly and the US Congress regularly on your behalf. The Political Steering Committee encourage and support physician involvement in grass root political activity to effect current issues facing your medical practice.

Medical Community

MSNVA has representatives on the Medicare Carrier Advisory Committee, the CareFirst Medical Advisory Committee, the Board and House of Delegates of the Medical Society of Virginia, and other relevant organizations.

Public Relations

Officers, individual members, and staff of the Society regularly work to promote the society's activities and strengthen the medical profession including the television program "To Your Health."

Women Physicians' Group

The MSNVA Women Physicians' Group conducts educational luncheon programs each year featuring speakers on clinical and socioeconomic issues.

MSNVA.ORG Website

Our website offers up-to-date information on issues, events and a wide variety of resources. The site contains valuable practice information on issues such as OIG Compliance, HIPAA, CLIA, and more. Members can link to their practice website or have a professional Web page created and indexed on our site.

The Medical Society of Northern Virginia Membership Application

What is the MSNVA?

The Medical Society of Northern Virginia is a not-for-profit association serving more than 1,000 physicians who live, practice, or have hospital privileges in the Northern Virginia area.

The Society stands for the highest in medical and professional standards in the practice of medicine and in the care of patients and is a focal point for a variety of physician volunteer activities.

What do the Physicians of MSNVA do?

Physicians volunteer their time and expertise on:

- ❖ adding their opinions and expertise to pending healthcare legislation and regulations affecting tort reform, healthcare funding and fair business practices.
- ❖ networking with other area physician and health groups as well as with the health department and related agencies.
- ❖ working to support and develop relationships with elected officials.
- ❖ educational seminars.
- ❖ MSNVA Foundation activities to benefit local health-related projects.
