Super Bowl Champion, Tom Brady announced he will be returning to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers for his 23rd season in the NFL. Brady first announced he would retire from the field on February 1st. But just 40 days later Brady posted a lengthy Instagram post announcing his return. The post reads “The past two months I have realized that my place is on the field and not in the stands. I am coming back for my 23rd season in Tampa.” Looks like Tom Brady has some unfinished business on the football field.
