Hi Sarah,

With spring just around the corner, and the theatre season in full swing, we're eager to share what we've been cooking up with the Frankly Spoken Productions team during the first quarter of 2026!

Meet us in Muddirt!

FSP is proud to share that we're co-producers of Tony and Emmy Award nominee Amber Buffin's Bigfoot! A New Musical. The can't-miss myth Nominee Amber Martin's Bigfoot: A Howl Machine. The can't-miss myth musical comedy stars Grey Henson (Shucked, Mean Girls) as the lovable living legend on a quest to save the local town of Muddirt—whether its townspeople like it or not.

Catch Amber talking about the Off-Broadway hit on The Kelly Clarkson Show, with a preview of what's been going on every night at New York City Center!

Since opening on March 1st, performances have been regularly selling out—and for good reason! Reviews are in, and critics can't help but be charmed by the 8-foot-tall spectacular Sasquatch. (We even made Entertainment Weekly's Must List!)

Catch this limited run through April 26th, and use promo code CLASSACT20 for 20% off tickets!

Just In Time is still splishing and splashing on Broadway

In case you missed it, the NY Times reported that “Just In Time is poised to become one of the few Broadway musicals in recent seasons to become profitable!” JIT just broke its own box office record, closing out the week of March 22nd at $1.87 million in earnings.

And with gratitude for his talent and leadership, we’ll bid farewell to our original Bobby Darin, the indomitable Jonathan Groff, who will be taking his final bow at the Circle in the Square on March 29th. While we’re sad to see the OG Bobby D go, we’re swooning over our next two leading men! Matthew Morrison (Glee, Hairspray, Finding Neverland) will be shimmying and shaking for just three weeks, beginning April 1st, before Jeremy Jordan (Smash, Newsies, The Great Gatsby) takes over the role on April 21st.

Use code PSBD35 for discounted seats to catch Matthew's turn at the mic in the basement of Wicked!

Introducing: The FSP Fund

With our second theater season well underway, we couldn't be prouder of what we've helped create with our partners and colleagues in just a few short years.

In that spirit, we're delighted to preview our latest and most personal endeavor: the FSP Fund. Our fund is dedicated to cultivating the next generation of creatives, providing them with the resources, guidance, community, and network to succeed in the ever-elusive business of show.

As a creative incubator, we'll grow audiences for our artists across mediums as we develop their projects for the stage. The fund will operate much like a startup: Our early-stage investors will enable us to work with all types of creatives and artists—from writers and directors to actors, musicians, and dancers—while supporting their work and bringing our own commercial projects to life.

To learn about the FSP Fund and how it works, send us an email.

Can't wait to share more soon!

Cheers,

Ryan & Kundel
