Greater Lowell Community Foundation Elects Seven to Board of Directors

Lowell, MA, June 29, 2017 – The Greater Lowell Community Foundation has added seven local business and community leaders to its board of directors. These newly elected directors represent the banking, corporate, and nonprofit sectors. From the Community Foundation's current catchment area the new board members will serve for three-year terms. Joining the board of directors are:

Yun-Ju Choi, Executive Director of Coalition for a Better Acre with over twenty years of nonprofit experience.

Charles Comtois, President of Sullivan Bille, P.C., Treasurer of the Lowell Rotary Club, and member of the SOS Committee and the Finance Committee of Lowell Cooperative Bank.

Steven Iem, Tax Manager at PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP and member of the Middlesex Community College Board of Trustees.

Robert Lockett, President of Workers Financial Services, LLC, and Chief Strategy Officer at Workers Credit Union.

Sheila Och, Chief of Community Health and Policy at the Lowell Community Health Center, and current board member of both the MA Board of Certification of Community Health Workers and Community Teamwork, Inc.

JuanCarlos Rivera, Director of Operations at the Boys and Girls Club of Greater Lowell.

Jay Stephens, CFO and Treasurer of Lowell Five Cent Savings Bank, member of the American Institute of Public Accountants, and member of the Financial Managers Society.

About Greater Lowell Community Foundation

The Greater Lowell Community Foundation is a philanthropic organization comprised of over 350 funds, currently totaling over $32MM, which is dedicated to improving the quality of life in 20 neighboring cities and towns. The Community Foundation annually awards grants and scholarships to hundreds of worthy nonprofits and students, and is powered by the winning combination of donor-directed giving, personal attention from its staff, and an in-depth understanding of local needs. The generosity of our donors has enabled the Community Foundation to award more than $11 million to the Greater Lowell Community since 1999.
