What PB readers' toddlers are sporting on a visit to the Baby Show

Grace Anna Mansfield, 1, from Ashford
Wearing Dress and tights, Primark; hairband, Tesco; shoes, Clarks.
Mum Nicola's favourite brand "Sainsbury's are good quality, wash well, and don't break the bank."
Grace's must-have "Usually she won't leave the house without her Hello Kitty wellie boots."
Style tip "To stop strops, I let Grace choose her outfits in the morning."

Jayden Craker, 3, from Portsmouth
Wearing Top, cardigan and boots, Next; jeans, Primark.
Dad James's favourite brand "I find the most stylish outfits for Jayden in H&M. You can pay more in there than other high-street places, but it's better quality, so I don't mind."
Jayden's must-have "He wears cosy things because he likes to dress like me."
Style tip "It's important to make sure that your child is comfortable in what he's wearing."

Jessica-Jane Hine, 1, from Newbury
Wearing Jumper and tights, Sainsbury's; skirt, Next.
Mum Emily's favourite brand "I like to buy from a few places. I love Next for the quality, Tesco for the prices and Sainsbury's for the wide range it stocks."
Jessica's must-have "She loves twirling and running about in her tutu from Next."
Style tip "Invest in summer and winter shoes so you're ready whatever the weather."

Layla Grace Wilkinson, 1, from Hertfordshire
Wearing Dress, Baby Gap; top, Zara; tights, Boots; shoes, Clarks.
Mum Laura's favourite brand "I'm an avid Zara and Baby Gap shopper because their clothes look and feel more unique."
Layla's must-have "Anything with Peppa Pig on it is a winner."
Style tip "Try to buy things to match what you already have in the wardrobe."

Cherry Preisner, 4, from Reading
Wearing Top, Zara; jeans, Sainsbury's; shoes, Onitsuka Tiger.
Mum Aldine's favourite brand "Zara does great clothes that are bright, different and wearable."
Cherry's must-have "Cherry is a tomboy and will only wear what she's happy with. She couldn't live without her trainers."
Style tip "If your little one is active, buy clothes that are durable."

Freya Mae Clegg, 1, from Snodland, Kent
Wearing Cardigan and top, Tesco; jeans and boots, Next.
Mum Michelle's favourite brand "If I have the money I like to buy Freya some fashionable bits from Ralph Lauren, but for day-to-day wear, I shop in Next."
Freya's must-have "She has so many clothes that I don't think she has a favourite any more. She's very lucky."
Style tip "You can't go wrong with some fitted jeans and a cute tee."

Isaias Brewerton, 3, from Hastings
Wearing Jumper and jacket, Gap; jeans, Me Too.
Mum Jay's favourite brand "I love Danish brand Me Too as it recycles plastic into funky and environmentally friendly clothes for kids."
Isaias's must-have "He's always wearing his lounge suit – basically a kids' onesie – he finds it so comfy."
Style tip "Leggings are great for keeping your little one warm and go with just about anything."

Janais Roberson, 2, from Croydon
Wearing T-shirt and knitted dress, Vertbaudet; tights, Mothercare.
Mum Kyria's favourite brand "I mainly buy from Vertbaudet because buying online is easier than shopping with a tot in tow."
Janais's must-have "The light-up trainers she got for her birthday."
Style tip "Buy things that look good but also keep your child warm during the chilly winter months."
