Monochrome colors are the perfect canvas for adding various accents to your home office (https://www.limitlesswalls.com/wall-murals/rooms/residential/home-office.html). To break up the color, try painting two walls in a cool grey shade, then paint the remaining 2 walls with a brighter color. Follow up with some boxy shelves in various orientations and complimentary colors to give a modern twist to bookshelves. Not only are the shelves useful, but by adding a variety of shapes, it gives a sleek, contemporary look.

Speaking of the office, white is always one of the go-to colors as it is neutral and goes with any décor, but why not add a bright accent color to add some stimulating atmosphere to your workspace (https://www.limitlesswalls.com/wall-murals/rooms/commercial/offices.html)? Paint one wall with a sparkling cerulean blue. Add some vertical wood accents to match your modern yet rustic desks to tie in the room's décor. Whether you upcycle some old pallets to add a wooden accent or a Limitless Walls wall mural (https://www.limitlesswalls.com/white-shiplap-wall-mural.html), adding some bright wooden accents will make your office or meeting room inviting.

Clean and bright white walls are the perfect canvas to make a statement in your bedroom. To add some texture (<https://www.limitlesswalls.com/wall-murals/collections/texture.html>) to your walls, try adding a faux brick facing or brick wall mural in white or another bright neutral color. Add some fun throw pillow accents to add a pop of color followed up by a soft throw or bedspread to offset the white. You'll have a bright and cheerful room to relax and snooze in.

Love bolder colors and stylish accents in the bedroom (<https://www.limitlesswalls.com/wall-murals/rooms/residential/bedroom.html>)? Be daring by adding a black accent wall to the bedroom. A single wall in black will not darken or be depressing if you add some additional bold accents. Paint the rest of the walls in white or light grey, then add bold red accents with a modern art print and splashy red accent pillows. Top the room off with modern wall lamps to give the room a nod to post-modern artists.

Those with the fortunate green thumb can take some wall art décor ideas from Mother Nature (<https://www.limitlesswalls.com/wall-murals/collections/nature-landscapes.html>). Add a few simple single wall shelves in a natural wood color like maple. Place some dried flowers in a vase along with some driftwood you found on your last trip to the beach. Then add a simple wall print with various shades of green to tie in your beautiful house plants. Nothing like bringing a hint of the outdoors inside to brighten any day.

Let's not forget the baby's room. All new parents have so many details to take care of, but one of the first that most think about is the nursery (<https://www.limitlesswalls.com/wall-murals/collections/nursery.html>). For those little girls, why not enhance the typical pink room with a soft, neutral gray. The two tones will complement each other while providing a sweet place for your baby to slumber.

Or if you have a bouncing baby boy, send him off into the clouds with this precious baby snoozing on the moon (<https://www.limitlesswalls.com/baby-on-the-moon-wall-mural.html>). Accent the other walls with a matching blue or stencil a few stars to add to this dreamy baby's room. Make a simple hanging over the crib of painted wooden stars and moons to top off this peaceful nursery.

Perhaps you have some leftover wallpaper from your last project. Or maybe you like to hit the bargain bin at your local DIY store. If so, take some of your favorite patterns (<https://www.limitlesswalls.com/wall-murals/collections/designers.html>) and frame them in decorative frames to add an interesting accent to any room in your home or office. It's a great way to use up those scraps and showcase some of your favorite patterns.

Wall art ideas for large walls or small doesn't have to break the bank or be difficult to create. With a bit of ingenuity and imagination, you can turn any room into a striking statement.
