SPRING/SUMMER
'20 TRENDS

ABSTRACT & GEOMETRIC

If there's one trend dominating homes and interiors this season, it's 70s shapes paired with abstract faces. Think semi circles and triangles when it comes to cushions, and rugs, and artwork is all about the Picasso-style sketched faces. As for colours, this trend calls for pastel galore.

TEXTURED BEIGE

For the past few years it's been all about using grey as a base tone in interiors. Beige was seen as old-fashioned... not anymore! 2020 sees the return of oatmeal shades in a big way, but the key to keeping the look modern is to add texture and depth to the shades of beige to keep things interesting.

GREEN & BOTANICAL

All things tropical have been on-trend in both fashion and interiors for a couple of years now, and the look isn't going anywhere. However, the 2020 take on the style uses less vivid hues and goes for darker forest shades mixed with mossy greens.
