Patient Reviews That Speak For Themselves

Susan Kirwin

"I spent nearly 18 months in pain. Tried different methods of treatment. Nothing worked. I went to a intro dinner and was intrigued. Well, Dr. Chase and Dr. Christenson made my pain go away!! Bless them!"

Melissa McCormack

"I absolutely love this place. The treatment is effective, everyone there is extremely knowledgeable and professional and I have seen amazing results in my own personal pain relief. I highly recommend them."

Adam Davis

"The doctors and staff are very caring and professional! Clearly above the rest! I've recommended this office to all my friends and family. One appointment is all it takes to see the difference!"

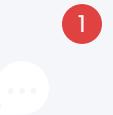

Transportation Options Available

When an accident happens, it's not just pain you might have to deal with. We understand that many of our patients may no longer have a vehicle, or their vehicle may be unavailable while being repaired. But don't worry, we've got you covered. We offer transportation services to ensure you receive the necessary critical care you may need.

What to Do If You've Been in a Car Accident

In Florida, it's crucial to seek medical attention immediately after a car accident. You have 14 days after a car accident to seek medical attention to be eligible for Personal Injury Protection (PIP) insurance benefits, which provide coverage for medical expenses and lost wages. If you are injured and do not seek medical attention within that 14-day period, those insurance benefits will no longer be available to you to help pay for the cost of treating your injuries.

Even if you do not feel injured, notify your insurance company as soon as possible after the accident to report it and provide necessary information. This can help document the accident. Receiving immediate medical attention will also establish a record of treatment, which is important for insurance and legal purposes.

If you've been in a car accident in the state of Florida, there are several important steps you should take...
