Common Questions About Learning Online at ASU

When do classes start?

Most of ASU's online degree programs have six start dates per year, so you can apply now and get started right away.

What is class availability like at ASU?

California students are relieved to know that at ASU, you can get into the classes you want and need, when you need them. Earn your degree on time with no frustrating delays.

Are transfer credits accepted?

We know that many students from California are studying at community colleges with a plan to transfer to a state university. At ASU, we admire your dedication to getting a degree, and we accept transfer credits, including IGETC/CSU GE credits.

Are scholarships and financial aid available?

Online students have a variety of options to pursue, including scholarships for transfer students, grants, or student and parent loans. The best way to get started is to submit your FAFSA.

“I love the community I have found at ASU. With other online classes, I felt like a number. But at ASU, I feel like I am a welcome, integral part of the community.” – Cheyenne Hassett, Anaheim, CA

General University Transfer Admission Requirements

Transfer students must meet one of the following requirements*:

Associate degree from a regionally accredited higher education institution: 2.50 or higher cumulative GPA (non-residents) / 2.0 or higher cumulative GPA (residents)

..... OR

A fully certified Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) or California State University General Education (CSUGE) with a minimum cumulative transfer GPA of 2.50 plus either a final high school transcript or GED

..... OR

24 or more transferable credit hours: minimum 2.50 cumulative GPA

..... OR

Less than 24 transferable credit hours: minimum 2.50 cumulative GPA and meet freshman aptitude requirements

* "A" = 4.0; ASU accepts transfer college-level courses in which you have earned a "C-" or better. Some ASU colleges and schools have additional or higher requirements for admission into their programs. If you select a program with additional or higher requirements, your Enrollment Coach can explain them.
