

Where to Watch Women's World Cup in Chicago

1 day ago by Xiao Faria daCunha 266 0

We will all agree Chicago is an extremely friendly sports town. In Windy City, sports are more than mere competition but a great way to build strong communities. After celebrating college football and baseball over the past few months, our next major sports event on the radar is the Women's World Cup. So, if you're planning to watch parties with your besties, here are our top pick spots and to-go options in Chicago!
