

Anna Wostenberg

Quiet

It's always quiet here so listen, dear;
The world is full of noises, you will see.
We will explore this land we often fear.

You learn to love this place, it will be clear.
It almost let's you feel like you are free
It's always quiet here so listen, dear;

This life is fast and often seems so sheer.
Some sounds are offered even by a tree.
We will explore this land we often fear.

It seems that some are brought to nearly tears;
For life, I ask you listen close, I plea.
It's always quiet here so listen, dear;

Remember you will know this trait for years.
I promise, dear, this is so meant to be.
We will explore this land we often fear.

The sounds will stay so long as you can hear.
So don't be scared, you never have to flee.
It's always quiet here so listen, dear;
We will explore this land we often fear.