Take small steps towards sustainability this Earth Day.

Small steps towards sustainability can make a difference. At Skritter, we are committed to promoting environmental sustainability and eco-friendly practices. To celebrate Earth Day, we'd like to invite you to join us in our commitment to the planet.

We're giving you one month of premium Skritter for free, so you can save trees while you study. With Skritter, you'll enjoy real-time grading, stroke-level feedback, and access to a wide selection of paperless content.

The activation code is SAVETREES2023 and must be applied on the website.

Here are the instructions. Make sure to redeem this offer soon, because the activation code expires on April 30th, 2023 (11:59 PM PDT).

We highly recommend exploring our assortment of Earth Day and sustainability content, which is packed with valuable vocabulary and insights. You'll study key topics such as recycling, climate change, and sustainability. So why not dive in below and discover how you can make a real difference?
