CAFETERIA CHRONICLES

School nutrition teams are making a difference in students' lives, and we are celebrating their successes on the Cafeteria Chronicles blog! Behind every healthy school meal is a story worth sharing, and the brings those stories to life.

These stories, shared by Healthy Meals Incentives (HMI) Initiative Recognition Awardees across the country, show that school cafeterias are more than just a place to eat - they're spaces that nourish students while fostering learning and connection.

From scratch-cooked recipes to creative ways of engaging students in menu planning, these stories highlight how school nutrition teams are making every meal matter.
