

CAFETERIA CHRONICLES

Looking for fresh, practical ideas to level up your school meals? Get inspired by real stories from real schools on the Cafeteria Chronicles blog! Find inspiration for healthier school meals and discover creative strategies that are making a difference, straight from the lunch line.

Concordia Charter School, Mesa, AZ

What happens when a small school in Arizona starts cooking from scratch, adds a garden, and lets kids collect eggs from their own chicken coop? At Concordia Charter School, students are not just eating healthier, they're learning, growing, and having fun doing it. Don't miss this inspiring story of how one school is reimagining lunch from the ground up!

Cherry Creek School District, Greenwood Village, CO

Think school lunch is just chicken nuggets and tater tots? Think again! Cherry Creek School District is dishing out scratch-made meals and bringing food education to life with their unique Food Literacy Program. See how they're making lunchtime something students look forward to.

Get inspiration for your next school nutrition adventure!
Visit www.healthymealsincentives.org/cafeteria-chronicles/