

Nazli Togrul

(404) 863-2015 | nazli.togrul@student.american.edu

EDUCATION

American University

B.A. Journalism and International Relations (GPA 3.5/4.0)

Washington, DC

Expected: May 2019

EXPERIENCE

The Eagle

Staff Writer

Washington, DC

January 2017-Present

- Wrote articles in the news and life sections for The Eagle, a student newspaper at American University, about the current issues on campus and in the greater Washington, DC area.

TRT News

News Intern

Izmir, Turkey

May – June 2016

- Assisted in the editing suite and investigative reporting office of TRT, Turkey's national news network.
- Wrote and edited broadcast scripts and investigated current issues.
- Reported on assignments and pitched ideas, two of which were aired on the evening news.

Voice of America – Turkish Section

Newsroom Intern

Washington, DC

September – December 2015

- Translated articles from Turkish to English and published them on the official website.
- Edited short news pieces and distributed to different sections of the network.
- Authored a blog about my experience as an international student in America.

Ajans FTV

Production Intern

Izmir, Turkey

May – July 2015

- Shot interviews and short videos and edited them using Adobe Premiere Pro.
 - Gained knowledge in multimedia and shooting film in various environments, while working successfully as a part of a team.
-

ACTIVITIES AND MEMBERSHIPS

International Student Association

President and Orientation Leader

Washington, DC

January 2016 – Present

- Mentored incoming international students with their transition into American University.
 - Led the executive board and coordinated special events every semester to create bonds between American and international students.
-

COMPUTER AND LANGUAGE SKILLS

Computer: Microsoft Office, Adobe Illustrator, Photoshop, Premier Pro, Final Cut Pro and social media (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Snapchat)

Language: Turkish (Fluent), English (Fluent), Afrikaans (Conversational)