

Fleming Island

Fleming Island is a census designated place (CDP) and an unincorporated community that is situated in the Clay County of Florida, U.S. Home to a local population of 27,126 residents in the 2010 census, Fleming Island is located just 21 miles to the southwest of the downtown area in Jacksonville. Fleming Island has a heritage dating back to the 1760s when the area was settled by George Fleming, who was given a land grant by the Spanish Governor of East Florida for his military service. Fleming Island was gradually developed into what is now a bedroom community towards the late 1990s, and opened its first and only high school in 2003.

There's no better place to unleash your inner explorer than at Fleming Island. There's an endless array of things to do and places to explore. You can experience the city life in Jacksonville and outlying areas, as well as the beach life that is on offer in Fleming Island itself. And with diverse areas to explore nearby, you will have plenty of options on your family trip here. Popular points of interest near Fleming Island include but are not limited to Black Creek Park and Trail, Doctors Lake, Camp Chowenwaw Park and Moccasin Slough Park.

Fixed rate mortgage quote in Fleming Island

Fleming Island is the perfect place to enjoy the outdoors, as well as some of Florida's finest dining, entertainment, and culture, tucked in a hospitable community in Clay County. Connect with MortgageQuote.com if you find yourself interested in obtaining a fixed rate mortgage quote as you search for properties in Fleming Island. We are a mortgage broker that is partnered with an array of top mortgage lenders in Fleming Island, allowing you the ease of picking a mortgage loan program that is geared around your requirements.

Sources

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Fleming\_Island,\_Florida

<https://www.niche.com/places-to-live/fleming-island-clay-fl/>