

Sometimes, God calls to us in whispers. Other times, he calls through death.

Li Min had always felt in control of her life — until her younger brother died of a severe stroke last year. Devastated and confused, she called on her neighbor, Sadie.

Sadie is a TEAM church planter, so she gladly shared about the hope and comfort found in Jesus. Soon, the two women started meeting for a Bible study!

Li Min's story isn't over yet, though. Will you pray with us for her and for all people being touched by church ministries?

- Ask God to point people to the Truth through local church plants.
- Pray that missionaries and church leaders will know how to lead effective Bible studies and outreaches.
