Guiding Principles

- Know your Audience
 - Use a relatable Subject or an intriguing Idea
- Share your Genius
 - Explain and communicate your Idea or Subject with conviction
- Make an Outline and Script
 - Give your Audience a Call to Action
 - The how and why of implementing your Idea/ Subject
 - Reveal the New Reality of implementing your Idea/ Subject
- Rehearse, rehearse, rehearse
 - Posture: Practice your gestures and eye contact with the audience
 - Timing: Practice until it is the correct length every time

An Example of how to break down your W.O.W. diaLOG:

- 1.15 minutes: Introduction
- 2 minutes: First Step or Key Point
- 2 minutes: Second Step or Key Point
- 2 minutes: Third Step or Key Point
- 1.15 minutes: Ending

Tried & True Suggestions:

- Dedicate the appropriate amount of time to build the bridge between the content you have shared and the attendees' steps to implement what they have learned.
- Please practice your presentation out loud at least two times in front of a group. We want you to shine, and rehearsing truly helps make that happen!
- Other tips: Provide factual information, best practices, and/ or your experiential knowledge when applicable.
- An effective W.O.W. diaLOGs Speaker understands that his/ her role is to be dependable, engaged, authentic, and tuned in to the attendee's needs.
