FLORALS? GROUNDBREAKING

As the first rays of warmer weather peek out, step away from the ditzzy florals and demure pastels. Instead, celebrate dress and jacket weather with large-and-in-charge florals and fiery shades that are well overdue their time in the sun.

Sadia wears Lotus tiered maxi dress, $249.95 and adjustable charm necklace (worn as bracelet), $99.95, Witchery; For-never mine LeSpecs, $59, David Jones; Paris jacket, $549, Arpelle; Ziera Kraig wedges, $219.95, Happy Fit Footwear. On the cover Cayenne bag, $479, Arpelle.

DOPAMINE DRESSING

With all this grey weather, we could use some colour therapy. Reach for feel-good, mood-boosting pieces this spring. Black may always be chic, but colour is much more fun to play with.

Sadia wears Dolcezza top, $149, and ELK earrings $45, Debbie Maree's Fashion Boutique; Marcs Confetti Kurb chain necklace, $59.95, Banana Republic denim utility skirt, $139.95, and Alias Mae Lin sandal, $219.95, David Jones. On the stool Artemis backpack, $479, Arpelle; Thea sunglasses, $79.95, Witchery; Sand dune folk floral square scarf, $109, David Jones.

THE LOOK

PATTERN PLAY

Abstract patterns are wearable art, and on a pleated midi skirt like this, totally business casual. Pair with a clean white sneaker and you are ready for whatever the day might throw at you.

Sadia wears Joseph Ribkoff top, $120, Festival pleat skirt, $189, and ELK Valter clip-on earrings, $49, Debbie Maree's Fashion Boutique; Ilana patent belt, $99.95, Witchery; Frankie4 Jackie III sneaker, $274.95, Happy Fit Footwear.
