DENIM ALL DAY

Translating the Canadian Tuxedo was a highlight of SS24 Copenhagen Fashion Week, from denim sets to 'dirty denim', and the surprising return of 'lookalike denim'. A mainstay of casual dressing, as the weather warms, we may find ourselves wearing denim to the office, to happy hour, and to dance the night away.

Likewise, the Scandi girl's favourite layer, a classic trench or carcoat, will be a wardrobe staple for the transitional months.

The WGSN colour forecast predicts a wave of Radiant Red for Spring/Summer 2024, so it's no wonder that Barbiecore Pink and Radiant Red are the hottest colour combo on our radar.
