THE ALCHEMY OF ART EMOTION TO EXALTION

WHY COMMISSION AN ART PIECE?

To commission art is to give form to the intangible — to translate memory, emotion, and vision into something everlasting. Each unique creation is not merely an object, but a dialogue between artist and collector, a union of intention and imagination. It is a reflection of who you are and what you cherish, distilled into a singular work that will never exist again. One-of-a-kind art transcends decoration; it becomes legacy and a timeless embodiment of beauty and meaning, carried forward for generations.

CONSULT & CONCEPTUALISE

Begin your commission journey by conceptualising what kind of artwork you wish to have created. What story does it tell? How do you want it to make you feel and what colours will enable you to feel this? Do you wish to capture something valuable or Sentimental? A Moment? A Keepsake? A Gift?

Measure your wall, assess your space and get an estimate idea of what size you are aiming for. If you are entirely unsure, let's set up a consultation to assist with suggestions & ideas. Engage in a full discussion regarding size, colours, styles - any photos, references and/or examples from my previous works that you have in mind.

EXPLORING THE GOLDEN WORLD OF AALIYAH EBRAHIM

The focus of Aaliyah's art is a continuous experimentation that allows her to reflect on the nature of emotions through material works. Abstract art therefore becomes the privileged choice to visualise something that has no form, basing strength on bright, gaudy colours, which speak directly to emotion without passing through the filter of rationality.

The omnipresence of gold refers to an almost supernatural, hieratic dimension, and seems to embody a wish from the artist, who aims to spread a precious message of harmony and positivity, as well as testifying to a goodness of spirit and intentions that few people (endowed with "a golden aura") know.
