

CHANELL NOISE

Sociologist and Writer

HELLO, HELLO.

Social science is my background and writing is my strength. I am currently enrolled in American's Journalism and Digital Storytelling program to sharpen my technical writing and reporting skills. I'm a DMV (DC, Maryland, Virginia) native, having resided in all three places and love the diverse energy of the Nation's capital. I am currently looking to start my career as a media maverick; I am available ASAP to roll my sleeves up and get to work.
