

Afifa Bashir

Writing the Hour Long Drama

Series Synopsis

Season 1-

Episode 1 : Pilot

Zeba shifted to Lahore with her Nano after her parents died in a horrendous car accident when she was 8 years old. Since then, she has been living with her Nano. For Zeba her Nano is her life and is currently unwell. Zeba feeds her regular medication prescribed by the doctor until the illness is diagnosed. She works in a digital marketing agency and has taken a leave for a week for her Nano. Apart from the unconditional love Zeba's nano shower on her, Lahore gifted Zeba the gift of true friendship and genuine care in the form of people not related to her by blood. Sharmeen and Meena crossed Zeba's life in grade 8 and their friendship served as a testimony to the unpopular opinion that water is thicker than blood. Sharmeen and Meena have lived in Lahore since birth. Sharmeen moved to Islamabad after her A levels because of her Dad's new job posting and is now revisiting Lahore to sort her family assets. Meena, shifted to the US with her childhood sweetheart, Zaron after A Levels. Meena returns to Lahore after a miserable divorce with the once love of her life. Sharmeen and Zeba bump into each other at a superstore they used to go after school. They decide to reconnect with each other over coffee. Sharmeen is practicing law currently and is immensely busy in helping her parents file a lawsuit against her high-profile relatives whereas Meena is intensely consumed by the grief and sorrow of her divorce. The pilot ends when Zeba gets to know her nano has cancer, her boyfriend Umer is cheating on her and Meena is divorced.

Episode2:

Hell broke loose for Zeba. Her week's leave is over and can not ask for more leaves from her boss. She has to start her work from Monday and get the new clients on board. This week at work is going to be super hectic. She arranges chemotherapy once a week for her nano and clears her schedule for that. Zeba feels emotionally empty after processing what Umer did to her and is struggling to fill the void so she tries her best to distract herself. Zaroon revisits Lahore from the US for a month with her mom to meet her Nano who also has cancer. Zaroon is also great friends with Zeba and Sharmeen and it was through them that Zaroon and Meena met. Zeba hires a maid who looks after her nano when she is at work. Sharmeen's days on the other hand are spent in reading and researching for her case of illegal property against her high-profile relatives who have booked a top-notch lawyer to fight for their case. This case is super important for Sharmeen to win or else half of her Dad's land property rightfully given to her Dad by his grandparents will be seized by his brothers and dad will not be able to pay his remaining debts which he took to fund Sharmeen's education. Zeba and Sharmeen try to take out time and go to check up on Meena every night to insist her to take therapy and to start teaching kids which Meena loves to do instead of crying and sitting and revisiting old memories with Zaroon every day after a mutual divorce. Through these night sessions, the three best friends are also able to catch up about their day. Zeba meets Zaroon coincidentally in the hospital during the chemotherapy and reconnects with him over coffee.

Episode 3.

Zaroon comes over Zeba's place to meet her because Zeba can't frequently leave her place because of Nano's health. Zeba and Zaroon catch up on Zaroon's divorce, Zeba's life, Sharmeen's life and Meena's health. Since both of their Nano's are unwell, Zaroon decides to take care of Zeba's nano and his while Zeba is at work and advises her to let go of the maid because that is an unnecessary expense. Zeba has told Sharmeen in confidence about Zaroon in Lahore. They haven't told Meena right now and are focusing on Meena's health. Meena is getting slightly better because of weekly therapy sessions and giving private tuitions at her home. Sharmeen and Zeba started to hang out with Zaroon over Zeba's place. Zeba's agency is looking for a part-time sales associate for a month who can be fully trusted to work under Zeba for a giant organization. Zaroon is an undergrad of communication and design and decides to join the agency. Zaroon and Zeba take their Nano's to chemotherapy together, work together and their platonic relationship is getting super intense. Sharmeen presents her final emotional appeal to the jury in court and waits for the judge to finalize his decision. Meena has left therapy and has joined an NGO and continues to give private tuitions at home.

Episode 4:

Sharmeen wins the case. The judge rules in her favour. Meena is fully functional and back on her feet with a disciplined routine. Zeba and Zaroon get the giant organization to be their client. Zeba and Zaroon's nano are getting better; chemotherapy is starting to prove effective. Zeba and Sharmeen spill it out to Meena about Zaroon being in Lahore for the past few weeks. Meena gets super pissed at her two best friends for not updating her. Zaroon's job contract is over and his days of going back to the US are coming near. Zaroon and Meena are both over each other and are living independent lives in a stable condition. Zaroon and Meena meet and have their final conversation on closure and part ways in a civil manner with no hard feelings for each other and agree on being friends. The four of them now meet at Zeba's place and chill as they used to.

Episode 5:

Sharmeen gets a job offer from a high-profile lawyer in Lahore so she plans on staying in Lahore while her parents go back to Islamabad. Zaroon's mom plans to go back to the US while Zaroon stays in Lahore with her Nano upon his Nano's insistence. Meena is getting promoted at her NGO as an head incharge of the extracurricular activities simultaneously she is looking for a small plot to open a tuition centre for the unprivileged children. Zeba and Zaroon started to meet alone for lunches and dinners. Zaroon decides to stay in Lahore with his Nano and rejoins Zeba's workplace on a one-year contract. Zeba, Sharmeen and Meena continue to meet alone and also with Zaroon. This episode ends with Zaroon proposing Zeba for marriage.

Episode 6:

Zeba is struck. Sharmeen and Meena are completely unaware of this. Zaroon's parents are unaware. The one person Zeba shares this is with her Nano. Zeba doesn't want to lose her closest friends over a guy and neither Zeba wants to let go of Zaroon's presence. Zeba shares this with Sharmeen. Her nano also has started to become ill again. The doctors have also warned Zeba about her Nano's deteriorating health and the low probability of her survival. Zeba has to think about her friendship with Meena and her Nano's health. The workload intensifies at Zeba's workplace. Sharmeen gets super busy with dealing with a high-profile case and is not available every time. Meena is busy getting sponsors on board for the tuition centre and simultaneously arranging a summer camp for the kids at NGO. Zeba asks for time. Zaroon is with Zeba trying to be here at this tough point. From hospital visits to work to domestic chores, Zaroon tries his best to Zeba's solid rock to rely on.

Episode7:

Zeba's Nano passes away. Sharmeen loses her case. Meena sponsors outrightly rejects or ghosts her. Zaroon gets a warning from her boss to produce satisfactory work or else he will be fired. The three best friends; Zeba, Sharmeen and Meena, meet and share the sorrow of each other. Zeba spills the truth of Zaroon proposing to her and Meena stands up and leaves. Zeba talks to Meena alone emphasizing her friendship with her. Zeba says yes to Zaroon. Zeba tries to reconcile with Meena. Meena takes her own time. Things start to fall back on track and the love and friendship both wins.

