SSL: Learn to support hybrid and work-from-home employees in the office.

Hi %FirstName%,

As pandemic precautions ease, more and more business leaders are implementing return-to-work mandates. The transition to working in the office full-time can be stressful for employees who have spent the past 4 years adjusting to the remote workplace.

We can help you make the transition to in-person work easier for your employees, so you can strengthen your business's work culture and revenue.

Join Matthew Saxon, Zoom's Chief People Officer, and Melissa Smith, "The Personal Virtual Assistant," on Wednesday, April 17, 2024, at 1:30 pm ET | 10:30 am PT as they discuss how employers, managers, and supervisors can support their hybrid and remote employees as they transition to an in-office environment.

"Welcome Back: Transitioning to the Office Full-Time"

Date: Wednesday, April 17, 2024

Time: 1:30 pm ET | 10:30 am PT

You'll learn how to:

- Encourage a positive in-office work environment for hybrid and work-from-home employees
- Help employees who were hired as remote workers adjust to your in-office procedures
- Support your employees as they readjust their personal and professional routines to accommodate a fully in-office work schedule
