
Adina Locketz

952-242-4625
adinalocketz@gmail.com

A focused and driven student with a passion for jewelry and metalsmithing who owns a small business while maintaining a high GPA and participating in sports and community activities

EDUCATION

Hopkins High School

Graduation June 2024

Minnetonka, MN

- Maintain a 3.8 GPA, while working 15+ hours a week and playing sports

Dual Enrollment/PSEO

Academic years 2021-2022

- Attended online classes via University of Minnesota, Twin Cities and University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee
- Continued education in the Hebrew language

WORK EXPERIENCE

Adina's Rings and Things Business Owner and Artist

February - September 2022

- Handmade jewelry made from recycled materials
- Sells rings, bracelets, necklaces, and earrings
- Participates in art fairs and farmers markets as a vendor

Primitiva Collective Consignment Seller

January 2023 - Present

- A boutique collective of small, women-owned businesses from the local area
- Dedicates 8 hours a month to working customer service in-store

YoYo Donuts and Coffee Bar Customer Service Representative and Barista

February - September 2022

- Quickly took down orders and helped customers receive food and drinks
- Trained new employees on responsibilities such as opening and closing

RELEVANT EXPERIENCES

- Shadowed metalsmith at Leo Daniels Jewelry, closely observed and learned to wax carve, prong set stones, etc
- Attended classes at local art center to learn skills in metal clay jewelry making

SKILLS

- Driven - Started small business from scratch and is continually growing the business
- Strong Leadership Ability - Served on synagogue youth group board as Social Justice VP, Communications VP, President of board, and currently holds the position of Past President
- Committed - Will stay focused and on task when given a responsibility, will devote as much time and energy as needed when passionate about something
- Collaborative - Works with other business owners to help expand and help eachothers businesses