JPR HEALTH COMMUNICATIONS CENTER ANNOUNCES BACK TO SCHOOL HEALTH FAIR IN MEMPHIS, TN

MEMPHIS, TN – September 1, 2022 – JPR Health Communications Center (JPRHCC), a leading health education and advocacy organization, is excited to announce its annual Back to School Health Fair. The event will take place in Memphis, TN, and is designed to ensure that students are physically, mentally, and emotionally prepared for the upcoming school year.

The Back to School Health Fair will be held on [Date] from [Time] at [Location]. This event is free and open to the public, and will provide a variety of health screenings, educational sessions, and resources for parents and students.

"We understand the importance of health in academic success," said Kelley Evans, Director of Communications at JPRHCC. "Our goal is to provide families with the necessary tools and resources to ensure their children are healthy and ready to learn."

The health fair will offer free vision and hearing screenings, dental check-ups, and immunizations for children. In addition, there will be educational sessions on nutrition, mental health, and physical activity. Parents will also have the opportunity to learn about local health resources and services available to them and their children.

"We believe that health education and access to healthcare services are fundamental rights," Evans added. "We are committed to making these resources accessible to all families in Memphis, regardless of their socioeconomic status."

JPRHCC encourages all families in the Memphis area to attend this important event. For more information about the Back to School Health Fair, please visit www.jprhealth.org.
