

Adorable dino ▶

Missing your pets on your holiday? Then meet Pleo, the cute interactive dinosaur that acts like a real pet, developing its own personality, habits and mood around how you act towards the little fella.

Don't worry about vet bills, buying pet food and organising a pet passport, give Pleo a home and let the fun begin.

Yours for around £249.95 at www.firebox.com

▲ Puppy power

If you're taking your music player on holiday, you'd be barking not to pack a pair of these stylish Bow Wow speakers.

Just plug them into your laptop or CD or MP3 player and they'll bark out all your music; they told me their favourite artist was Snoop Doggy Dogg.

Give a dog a home for around £25 at www.paramountzone.com

▼ Have a ball

OK, so you won't be the first to take a ball to the beach, but if you hit the shore with a Waboba Ball you're sure to turn a few heads.

The Waboba Ball bounces off water like a tennis ball off the ground, so you can make a real splash in the sea this summer.

Catch one for around £4.95 at www.iwantoneofthose.com

The
Waboba Ball
www.waboba.com

The
Waboba Ball
www.waboba.com

▲ Stars in your eyes

Plasma TVs may have brought the cinema into your living room, but now these nifty glasses let you see your favourite movie stars super-sized almost anywhere.

Just slip on these funky shades, plug them into your video iPod, laptop, DVD player or Sony PSP™, and there you have it, your very own 50 inch movie screen; now all you need is popcorn!

Get a pair of EzVision Video glasses for around £149 at www.iwantoneofthose.com