About the attraction

Set on a cliff above the River Avon, Warwick Castle is a medieval fortress that dates from the 11th century. Activities at the fortress include falconry displays, a Horrible Histories Maze, the Time Tower, a Princess Tower, talks about the reconstructed trebuchet and tours of the Great Hall and Staterooms. For information on daily shows, click here.

Woodland Lodges are in the Knight's Village in a woodland next to the River Avon. Knights will be on hand for photos and meet-and-greets. Each lodge has a double bed, a separate sleeping area for children, a wet room and shower (with towels included), a television and free Wi-Fi. Accommodation includes a cooked or continental breakfast, served in the Medieval Banqueting Hall. For an additional cost, you can eat a medieval-style dinner in the Medieval Banqueting Hall.

"Warwick Castle is perfect for an over-Knight stay because a single day simply isn't enough" -- Daily Mirror

"Set yards from the languid, lily-covered waters of the River Avon... the woodland accommodation is a great launchpad for family fun" -- The Sun

"There's plenty to fill your day with at Warwick Castle - in fact, too much to fit in to one day really" -- Northamptonshire Telegraph
