

INTRODUCING

Hello, I'm Adam Meredith.

For many years in pastoral ministry in various contexts, one common thread is seen through it all – seeing artists and creatives disciplined, supported, equipped, compelled and released for gospel purpose in the city. In a generation suspicious of truth claims and unconvinced by moral assertion, beauty presented through the arts has a surprising allure. Working creatively and alongside creatives is a driving passion – presenting the beauty of Jesus – because everything about Jesus is beautiful.

Experience

2012–NOW

The Red Door Community Church

SENIOR MINISTER

In this role I have served as senior minister, executive minister as well as creative oversight at Red Door.

- Vision casting and implementation
- Equipping artists for the work of the ministry
- Discipleship through HouseChurch
- Unity across the broader body of Christ
- Creative expressions of the gospel

Riverview Church

CREATIVE DIRECTOR > CAMPUS PASTOR

What began as the media director overseeing a church television program across 20+ nations, extended into music, design, production, events and eventually pastoral work, teaching and preaching.

- Oversight of large teams
- Collaboration with artists for gospel purpose

2000–12

Schlumberger

MANAGEMENT ACCOUNTANT

Worked in the oil and gas industry in the software side of this multi-national service company.

1998–00

Heytesbury

MANAGEMENT ACCOUNTANT

Supporting a private family company involved in a variety of industries including transport, construction, cattle, wine, art and theatre.

1997–98

Ernst & Young

SENIOR ACCOUNTANT

Many at EY regularly questioned what I was doing here? Saying “You are too creative to be an accountant, unless you want to be illegal!” It was during this time Jesus revealed himself to me and we saw a mini revival happen in the work place.

1995–97
