Anthrax and Black Label Society - Friday, August 12, 2022, 7 p.m.

Rock out with two heavy metal bands for Anthrax's 40th Anniversary Tour.

Anthrax is a legendary heavy metal band from New York City that formed in 1981. They are considered one of the leaders in thrash metal music and are part of the "Big Four" with Metallica, Megadeth, and Slayer. Anthrax has released 11 studio albums including Among the Living, their most popular album. The album featured the bands' classic lineup of Scott Ian, Charlie Benante, Belladonna, Dan Spitz, and Frankie Bello.

Black Label Society will be joining Anthrax on tour. The heavy metal band formed in Los Angeles, California in 1998 by founder Zakk Wylde. Like Anthrax, Black Label Society has released 11 studio albums. Released in 2005, their most popular album, Mafia, featured "Fire it Up" which appeared as a playable song in the Guitar Hero franchise.

Celebrate 40 years of heavy metal with Anthrax and Black Label Society. Tickets for the anniversary event range from $49.50 to $92.75. Doors will open at 6 p.m.

Enanitos Verdes - Saturday, August 13, 2022, 8 p.m.

Enanitos Verdes is a Latin American, pop-rock trio from Argentina. The band formed in the city of Mendoza in 1979 and has earned recognition for its work in multiple countries.

Their performance at House of Blues Orlando will wrap up their 17-city tour. Some of the bands' biggest hits include "Guitarras Blancas," "La Muralla Verde," "Amores Leianos," and "Eterna Soledad." The band has released 15 studio albums, four live albums, and two compilation albums throughout their career.
