

Halloween Horror Nights at Universal Orlando

The “World’s Premier Halloween Event” is coming back this fall. Guests can experience the excitement and horror of Universal’s Halloween Horror Nights 31 on Select Nights from Friday, Sept. 2 - Monday, Oct. 31, 2022. Keep reading to see what you can expect from the 31st year of fright.

10 Themed Haunted Houses

Haunted Houses are the marquee attractions when you visit the event. Universal prides themselves on providing the most entertaining and shocking houses by obtaining the rights to the biggest names in horror. Combined with the twisted thinking of their creative team, guests can expect well-known titles in horror and original houses. The three houses revealed are:

- The Horrors of Blumhouse
 - The masters of horrors, Blumhouse will have a double-feature house. Guests are caught between a teen and serial killer in the movie “Freaky.” Soon after escaping the serial killer, you will face the basement of The Grabber from “The Black Phone.” Will you survive?
- Halloween
 - Based on the 1978 horror classic, the Halloween house places guests in iconic moments from the movie, as you try and escape the infamous Michael Myers.
- Universal Monsters: Legends Collide
 - The Legends become real as guests step into a battle between The Wolf Man, Dracula, and The Mummy icons. Who will win and will you escape the clash of these horror movie titans?

More houses will be revealed in the coming weeks.

Other Event Attractions

In addition to 10 Haunted Houses, the event will boast five mischievous scare zones, two exhilarating live shows, thrilling theme park rides, and themed food and drinks.

Watch your back as you enter scare zones where roaming “scare-actors,” props, and horrifying sounds surround you. Scare zones are placed around the park and provide entertainment before you step into a house.

Take a break from the scare-actors by taking in one of the two live shows offered during the event. The live shows provide world-class entertainment.

If you’re up for a challenge, test yourself by riding one of Universal’s signature thrill rides at night. Whether you’re screaming from the rides or terrifying scare-actors, you’re sure to have a great time.

Themed Food & Drinks

Universal has taken its events to a new level with themed food & drink options and Halloween Horror Nights will be no exception. Cool off with a themed beverage or raise the heat with terrifying food combinations.

Between surviving the houses, dodging scare-actors in scare zones, getting hype at live shows & screaming on thrill rides, you won't be able to catch your breath.
