To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to recommend Stacie Martin for any position involving writing and public relations. Stacie, my ex-wife, played a crucial role in promoting me and my galleries, Christopher Martin/CHM Galleries, through her exceptional PR work and writing abilities.

Stacie consistently displayed her talent for writing and was able to effectively craft our message. Her authentic writing style and storytelling left a lasting impact on our audience and client base. Whether it was creating press releases or biographical content, developing website content, or social media content, Stacie consistently delivered outstanding work that exceeded my expectations.

Consistent dedication, attention to detail, and a strong work ethic were evident in her contributions. She always met deadlines and went above and beyond to improve our verbal presentation. Her ability to build relationships with the media and clients further enhanced our marketing efforts.

I highly recommend Stacie Martin for any position that requires exceptional writing and PR skills. Her ability to craft compelling narratives, combined with her professionalism and commitment to excellence, make her an invaluable asset. I am highly confident that Stacie will excel and contribute to any organization that requires these skills.

My hope is that this letter of recommendation is not discounted due to our past relationship. Stacie's qualifications and abilities speak for themselves, and I believe she would be a valuable addition to any team.

Sincerely,

Christopher Martin
