SEAMLESS PROJECT MATCHING: FIND OPPORTUNITIES TAILORED FOR YOUR BUSINESS

Why sort through hundreds of projects yourself when PlanHub can do it for you? Your PlanHub profile automatically matches you with projects suited to your work and location. Fresh, relevant projects land in your inbox daily, saving you time and effort.

Take it a step further with customizable filters and notifications to pinpoint exactly what you're looking for—by trade, distance, bid due date, or construction type. Dive deeper with a keyword search that highlights matches in project names, descriptions, or files, linking you straight to the right pages.

With tools for viewing project details, tracking team activity, participating in Q&A forums, and adding markups to files, PlanHub streamlines the process so you can focus on winning the right work.

KEEP THE PROCESS MOVING— WHEREVER YOU ARE

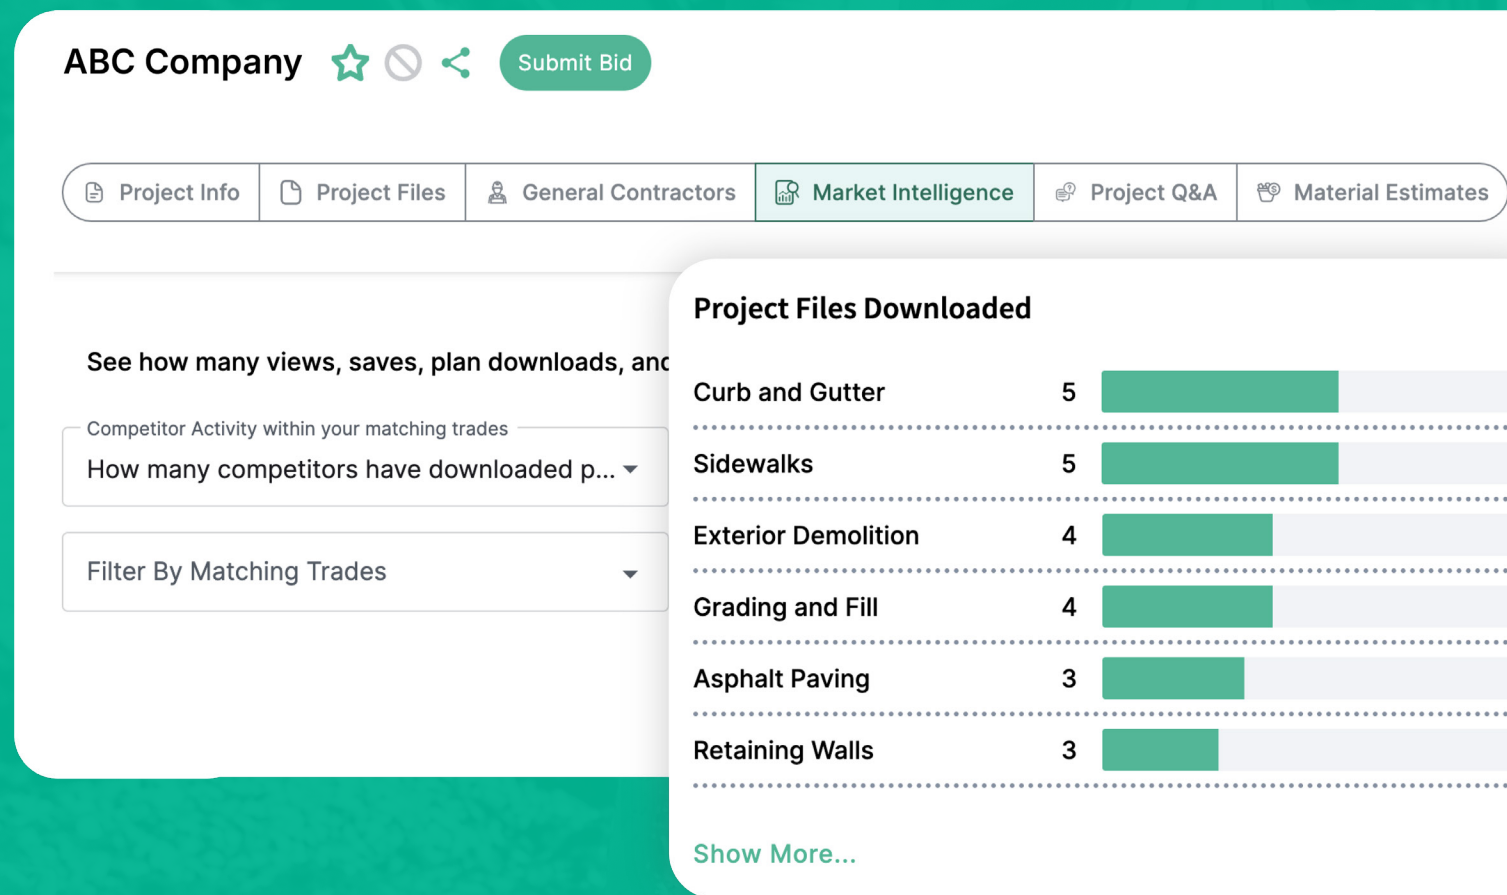

Manage your bids effortlessly with the ITB Inbox App, designed to keep you organized and in control wherever you go. Push notifications ensure you're instantly alerted to new Invitations to Bid (ITBs), while full project access lets you evaluate details, files, and posting GCs right from your phone. Make go/no-go decisions quickly, clearing your inbox daily and staying on top of your bidding process.

Collaborate seamlessly with your team by assigning ITBs directly from the app to the Bid Board. Need more information? Message or call GCs directly within the app. With integrated messaging and streamlined organization, the ITB Inbox App makes managing your bids simpler and more effective—right from your pocket.

KNOW THE DEMAND, KNOW YOUR COMPETITION

Make informed decisions with PlanHub 2.0's Competitive Analysis tools. See how many others are engaging with a project—bids submitted, files downloaded, and more. Gauge the demand for a specific project to decide if it's worth your time and effort.

Dive deeper with Market Intelligence to uncover who else is bidding and their track record. Understand your competition's history and strengths, giving you the edge to bid smarter and win more. With these insights, you'll always be a step ahead in choosing the projects that align with your goals.

BUILD RELATIONSHIPS THAT WIN PROJECTS

Behind every winning bid is a strong relationship. PlanHub's Network gives you the tools to connect with over 50,000 General Contractors, helping you build partnerships that lead to repeat work. Instead of competing on every bid, position yourself as a general contractor's trusted go-to, making it easier to find and win projects.

PlanHub's Network helps you find general contractors posting projects relevant to your trade with powerful filters. Access detailed company profiles with contact info, team roles, and their latest projects. Track past interactions, stay organized with notes, tasks, and reminders, and build lasting relationships that increase your chances for repeat work.

BONUS TIP

STAY ON TOP OF YOUR BIDS

Once you've found great projects, managing them effectively is the key to winning more work. PlanHub's Bid Board keeps your bid pipeline organized and efficient.

Use drag-and-drop tools to sort and update bids, assign tasks to your team, and filter by bid stage to stay aligned. In Bid Board, you can sort projects by due date or assigned team members. With color-coded alerts, you'll always know which projects to follow up on next.

Integrated tools like Takeoff let you move seamlessly between tasks, saving time and effort. With instant access to real-time bid statuses—won, in progress, or lost—you'll stay focused on what drives results.
