

8 Goddesses of Hunt You Should Know

Artemis (Greek)- goddess of wild animals, childbirth, the moon, hunting, healing, nature, sudden death, young women, virginity, wildlife, and vegetation.

Devana (Polish)- goddess of hunting, wild animals, and forests

Mielikki (Finnish) is the goddess of forests and the hunt.

Dali(Georgian)- goddess of the hunt associated with horned beasts of the mountains. Representations frequently show her as a beautiful nude woman with golden hair.

Skaði (Norse) - a jötunn (giant) and goddess associated with bow hunting, skiing, winter, and mountain

Uwardowa (African Hausa), goddess of the hunt, wild animals, wilderness, and forests

Diana (Roman)- goddess of the hunt, moon, forests, wildlife, and wild animals and is equivalent to the Greek Artemis

Bugady Musun (Siberian)- goddess of hunting, wildlife, and animals.