The banner features a blue background with a white document icon on the left. The document shows a chapter title "Chapter 1. Before the s" and two paragraphs of text. The first paragraph starts with "When I returned home, the front door, leaned against the wall, that for a couple of long minutes my eyes slipped down, sat on the checkered floor, buried my face in my knees, and listened to the silence of my empty apartment—to the silence inside of my head. Just a regular evening of another ordinary day." The second paragraph starts with "Through the open window, I could hear the city humming. Thousands of people were driving somewhere in their cars, shouting into their cellphones, walking around, buying stuff, meeting their friends, talking about this and that. An airplane high up in the sky crossed violet dusk; the smoke plume behind it hung there, glowing with pearls in the sunset. I found myself sitting in the kitchen, drowning in the oncoming darkness, propping my head with my hand, and gazing at the blank wall in front of me." On the right side of the banner, there is a large blue play button icon and the text "Easily process your book with Writer". A small document icon is in the bottom right corner.
