Well, we're definitely no Da Vinci, but at least we're smart enough not to start negotiating without a strong source-to-pay platform to back us up 😅

Lydia: I work in Procurement.

Greg: I have a cousin who works in supply chain management, too.

Lydia: Hmm. You said you're in Sales, right? I have a cousin who works in Engineering, too.

Greg: Um, but that's not the same though

Lydia: You don't say -_-

Which of the following procurement stereotypes are you most tired of hearing? Comment away!

1. "You work in Procurement? So all you have to do is shop? 🤔"
2. "Susan can bargain and get us the cheapest hotel deal. After all, she works in Procurement. 😏"
3. "You probably have the easiest job in your company, right? 😏"
4. "You're part of this decision-making meeting? But aren't you from Procurement? 🤔"
