Expanded Hot Flights Offering

We're pleased to announce we have added more daily Hot Flights—one-way repositioning trips on which you and your guests get the plane all to yourselves for as little as $320—to the Hot Flights Board on the Wheels Up App and Member Website. As another benefit of our acquisition of TMC, their repositioning legs on Hawker 400XP light jets now show up in the list of flights.

Keep checking the Hot Flights Board daily for great new opportunities to fly at a fraction of the cost.

NY-to-FL Shuttle

This fall, new Shuttle Flights between New York and South Florida aboard Wheels Up-approved partner aircraft will be available to you. Just like on our popular NYC-to-Nantucket and NYC-to-East Hampton Shuttles, individual seats will be available on these flights for a flat low rate. Stay tuned for more details coming soon!

New Acquisition

Wheels Up recently acquired Avianis Systems, a leading private aviation technology company. This strategic deal will allow us to accelerate the development of our digital platform, including our Wheels Up Charter Marketplace, through the integration of Avianis's technology. Our platform will seamlessly connect an even greater supply of approved private aircraft around the world to our ever-growing flight demand, driven by our expanding base of over 6,000 members. As a result, you will greatly benefit from a significantly larger number of aircraft types to choose from, as well as even more competitive real-time pricing.
