

How does FirstNet deliver in times of crisis? Public safety leaders explain

READ NOW

Sponsored content from
FIRSTNET
Built with AT&T

POLITICO

California | California Playbook | California Climate | California Decoded | Rebuilding LA | 2026 governor's race

The California Democrat's remarks come after the president had doubted his own prospects for reaching heaven.

The California Democrat said Republican leaders' "obedience to these authoritarian tendencies may be the most disgraceful of all aspects of this moment." | Getty Images

By JULIANN VENTURA
10/22/2025 09:10 PM EDT

STOCKTON, California — Gov. Gavin Newsom suggested that President Donald Trump's allies are at risk of not getting into heaven, saying they'll "have a lot to reconcile at the pearly gates."

"To see people in positions of power and influence do absolutely nothing when they must know better — and I believe they do ... Boy, they're going to have a lot to reconcile at the pearly gates," Newsom said at a press conference Wednesday during the California Economic Summit in Stockton, part of California's Central Valley.

Advertisement

Sponsored content from FirstNet, Built with AT&amp;T

Public Safety

Newsom's remarks come after Trump himself recently expressed doubt about his own prospects for entering heaven.

"I mean, you know, I'm being a little cute. I don't think there's anything going to get me in heaven. I think I'm not maybe heaven-bound," Trump told reporters last week aboard Air Force One. "I'm not sure I'm going to be able to make heaven."

Newsom — a likely 2028 contender, who has relished his role as one of Trump's most outspoken critics — at the press conference specifically called out House Speaker Mike Johnson, asking: "Where is Speaker Johnson? Where is the outrage by what the hell is going on in this country? This is not the United States of America."

He added that Republican leaders' "obedience to these authoritarian tendencies may be the most disgraceful of all aspects of this moment."

The California Democrat also took aim at Trump following media reports that the president is sending more than 100 federal troops to the San Francisco Bay Area, just outside of the city where Trump has recently threatened to send the National Guard.

The governor called the move "predictable" and part of the "authoritarian playbook."

"You announce your intention to send the military to streets ... doing domestic policing operations, you wildly overstate or completely make up crime statistics that are not real, that do not justify such action," Newsom said. "And for this administration, you send first masked men to the cities that you want to militarize."

Advertisement

Sponsored content from  FIRSTNET
Built with AT&T

Public Safety Leaders Weigh in

Why FirstNet is critical for secure, reliable communications

Read More

Newsom also poked fun at those he sees as "bending the knee" to Trump, promoting new products that he aims to sell on the "Patriot" website he set up

Newsom: Trump's GOP allies will 'have a lot to reconcile at the pearly gates' - POLITICO to parody the president.

"You will be seeing on my Patriot site new knee pads that I'll be sending out," he said, specifically calling out CEOs, media companies, law firms and universities like the University of Virginia, which recently reached a deal with the Justice Department over alleged civil rights violations and discrimination.

The White House press office could not be immediately reached for comment.

FILED UNDER: CALIFORNIA, DONALD TRUMP, GAVIN NEWSOM

California Playbook
Inside the Golden State political arena

EMAIL

Your Email

EMPLOYER

Employer

* All fields must be completed to subscribe

SIGN UP

By signing up, you acknowledge and agree to our Privacy Policy and Terms of Service. You may unsubscribe at any time by following the directions at the bottom of the email or by contacting us here. This site is protected by reCAPTCHA and the Google Privacy Policy and Terms of Service apply.

SPONSORED CONTENT

What our analysis of 900 firms shows about their values

The Economist

Harvard Professor Steven Pinker Recommends: 7 Books He Would Reread...

Cognitive scientist Steven Pinker shares the books that prove the world is getting better...

Blinkist: Celebrity Reading List

What Happens When You Own Physical Gold And Silver?

The Real Value Of Owning Physical Gold
Goldco

Why Is Everyone Quitting Gmail?

Proton Mail

Neither Left nor Right: A Newsletter for Libertarians.

Buying Nvidia in 2025? Wall Street Veteran Issues New Investment Insights